

1. The text starts with a regular weekly event. Which part? Explain the situation.
2. a) Introduce the “visitor” in your own words (name, physical appearance, clothing, place-of residence).
 b) Describe his personality and social behavior. Use the text to support your answer where possible.
 c) Find two elements in the text that show how wealthy he is.
3. Introduce the “young woman of color”.
 a) What does the reader learn about her and her general situation?
 b) What can the reader guess about her connection with the visitor?
4. “Mother” and “Father” feel two opposing reactions to the regular weekly event. Show the difference.
5. The text is an illustration of the place-of birth concept in society at the time. Which- of us learn about it?
6. What is the message by Mark in the story?
7. Homework: What did you learn about the author?
 a) Continue the story. (200 words)
 b) What part does Mark play in your life? (200 words)

8. DISCUSSION

Transfer from “Business As Usual” to 2019 “poker window” L.37.